

Playing with words

1. Look at the pictures and words on this page. Can you find:

- an adjective that describes how someone is feeling
- an adverb that tells us how something has been done
- an adjective that describes an object
- an adverb that describes how someone is doing something at the moment.

I'm speeding down this hill really quickly!

I mended the plumbing leak efficiently.

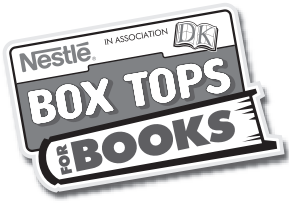

This is a sparkly, glistening necklace.

I am really excited - today my friends are coming round for a brilliant party.

2. Work with a partner to cut out adverts from magazines and highlight the adjectives and adverbs.

Playing with words

3. Could you make up your own advert for one of these items?

- a new football boot
- a new CD by your favourite band
- a new kind of breakfast cereal

4. How do the adverbs and adjectives change the way your advert sounds?

5. What do you think would be missing if these types of words were not available?
